ALOHA AINA CON-DEMNS WOOLLEY

McCandless Paper Says He Should Not Be Followed

In its editorial comment on the prohibition of the brand being agitated by John G. Woolley, the Aloha Aina, controlled by L. L. McCandless of today published a short article, calling the attention of the Hawaiians, who are getting in touch with Woolley, to beware of his work and action.

The translation of the article is as follows:
Is this the same John G. Woolley who spoke so loudly and badly of the Hawaiians while he was addressing the Senate committee in Washington during the consideration of the prohibition problem? He said as follows: "They are a great, beautiful, lazy people."

Read and consider the statements of the leader of the prohibitionists in Hawaii, as published in the Advertiser, dated February 2, 1910 on page 9. "If the Hawaiians were really lazy," as is quoted by this sheep-coated, haole, then the Hawaiians who are keeping in touch with him are the lazy fellows, whom he referred to. As for us, we do not want to be led by the malilini haole who call us by names.

WATERFRONT NOTES

THE TWO hundred and thirty or more cabin passengers en route from the Orient to San Francisco spent an enjoyable season at Honolulu during the nearly twenty-four hours layover that the Toyo Kisen Kaisha liner Tenyo Maru made at this port. The Japanese steamer brought over a thousands tons of miscellaneous cargo for the port, including a large consignment of gin and a quantity of gunny sacks. The work was completed last night and the Tenyo Maru was dispatched for San Francisco at 9:30 this morning. The big ship is leaving here for the coast with but very few available first class berths.

AFTER HAVING discharged a quantity of baled hay and other lines of cargo for the United States quarter-master department, the transport Sheridan has been dispatched for Manila, calling at Guam on the way across the Pacific. The Sheridan made an extended stop at the port, thereby giving the large number of army officers and their families as well as several hundred enlisted men an opportunity of visiting many interesting points in and about the city. The Sheridan took on seven hundred tons of coal before sailing at noon today.

HILO SHIPPING at the time of departure of the Mauna Kea, included the American-Hawaiian freighter Arizona, which arrived there Friday morning; the Matson Navigation steamer Enterprise was expected to sail for San Francisco on next Tuesday. The schooner Batboa is taking on a shipment of railway ties. This vessel was scheduled to sail on Friday or today. The schooner S. T. Alexander is discharging railway ties and the ship Edward Sewall is expected to finish loading sugar by the coming week.

THE FOLLOWING vessels were passed by the steamer Mauna Kea on her homeward voyage from Hilo: the Cascade at Papaikou, Kauai at Hakalan, Helene at Kohala, Kailua at Paauhau, and the Maui at Honolulu.

WATERFRONT NOTES

THAT THE Pacific Mail liner Asia is the latest vessel of the fleet to receive an installation of wireless telegraph has been borne out by the receipt of the initial message from that steamer. The Asia was reported for the first time last evening and her position was given at 1007 miles off the port, steaming through fine weather and smooth seas. The Asia is expected to arrive here early Tuesday morning. The vessel is bringing only a few layover passengers from San Francisco.

BEER BALLAST is reported to have served to trim the fast and furious bark Alden Bonse which is now en route to Honolulu from Southern California ports. The vessel left here several months ago, taking about a thousand tons of scrap iron destined for Redondo.

IT TOOK the little schooner O. M. Kellogg twenty-four days to cover the distance between this port and Grays Harbor. The vessel is reported to have arrived at the Washington port on Thursday.

THE BARK R. P. Rithet was twenty-three days in completing the passage between Hilo and San Francisco. The vessel arrived at the coast port yesterday.

A SHIPMENT of lumber is reported to have left Willapa Harbor, destined for Mahukona by the schooner A. M. Barter.
